

Young Farmer of the Year Award

Supported by Warwickshire Agricultural Society, we are delighted to introduce a new award this year, The Young Farmer of the Year. We are looking for a young farmer who deserves recognition for their work within the agricultural industry.

If you know someone, please do nominate them, or nominate yourself.

Entry Criteria

Under the age of 30 on 30th September 2021

Currently working in Agriculture

Living in the county of Warwickshire

We are looking for someone who is able to demonstrate a real knowledge of their area of agriculture

who has a great work ethic

is proactive and forward thinking and is a great ambassador for farming and agriculture in the U.K.

If you are this person or if you know someone, please nominate them.

Entries close 30th September 2021. The winner will be announced in December and presented with the award at our 2022 show on Saturday 4th June.

This award is supported and sponsored by Brian Dalby and The Warwickshire Agricultural Society. A trophy along with a prize of £200 will be awarded to the winner.
